TYPE A and ENDORSEMENT COURSES

offered through

The Division of University Extension

and

The School of Graduate Studies

Summer Courses for Secondary School Teachers
Commencing July 4, 1966

Any teacher wishing to use the courses listed in this brochure for credit toward the academic requirements of Endorsement or Type A must write to the Director, Advanced Academic Requirements, Ontario College of Education, 371 Bloor Street West, Toronto 5, Ontario for an official ruling on his standing, in order to ensure that the courses in which he wishes to enroll will meet the requirements of his own academic programmes. Each course, when approved will carry three credits at O.C.E. towards Type A or Endorsement requirements as the case may be.

Forms of application for admission as a Special Student to the programme offered by the Division of University Extension are available at: The Division of University Extension, 84 Queen's Park, Toronto 5. Telephone 928-2406.

Forms of application for admission to the programme offered by the School of Graduate Studies are available at the School of Graduate Studies, University of Toronto, Toronto 5. Telephone 928-2387.

Application for Admission to the Summer Session

This year courses suitable for Type A and Endorsement will be offered by both the School of Graduate Studies and the Division of University Extension. Applications for admission to the programme offered by the School of Graduate Studies must be received not later than April 30, 1966. Applications for admission to courses offered by the Division of University Extension must be received not later than May 15, 1966.

Students wishing to enroll for courses offered by the School of Graduate Studies (see page 2) must apply directly to the School of Graduate Studies.

Students wishing to enroll for courses offered by the Division of University Extension must apply for admission to the Faculty of Arts and Science as a Special Student. Special Students are, by definition, those who are not proceeding to the Bachelor of Arts degree of the University of Toronto in the General Course (Extension). Special Students must apply for admission to each session in which they intend to enroll. They must possess the same admission requirements as Regular Students and, in the case of Type A courses, must present, when applying for admission, evidence of having a university degree as well as documents to satisfy the prerequisites of the courses they may wish to take.

Students should not wait for approval from O.C.E. before sending in the form requesting admission to the Summer Session.
